Web Developer / PHP

I am looking for a HOME BASED and/or FULL-TIME job preferably as a web developer or entry level PHP programmer. I have worked before in an advertising company as a graphic artist that is why I have sufficient knowledge in photo editing specially using Adobe Photoshop. Learning Photoshop became an advantage for me because I am now applying what I have learned, adding to my webpages more style and variations. I have been working with webpages for almost over 4.5 years now ever since HTML was introduced to me way back on the year 2003. Followed by CSS in the year 2004 and PHP & MySQL in the year 2008. I speak both English and Filipino language. Please feel free to visit my page at <http://www.vasquezprince.net76.net> to see few of my works.
